

Customizing Perfection

Framed by a field of yellow and green, this classic pool includes a vanishing edge that overlooks the hills and vales of the pretty-as-a-picture countryside. The stark white deck is actually quite dramatic, as it brings out the dark blue hues of the pool.

Neuman Pools has the knowledge, skill and creativity to successfully transform virtually any residential project from drawing board to diving board. In fact, Neuman Pools brings special expertise and a unique perspective to all of its residential projects — as Neuman Pools is experienced in the design and construction of commercial pools and aquatic facilities where much of the technology for today's pools originated.

Whether a new pool is to be contemporary, traditional or freeform in design, Neuman Pools counsels with each client so they can customize each project. From concept through construction, everything is accomplished by working directly with each customer to ensure that their desires, wants and needs are met.

Swimming pool and waterpark construction is a highly specialized field. Neuman Pools has built a solid reputation as a commercial and residential builder that can tackle even the most challenging indoor and outdoor projects, from elaborate freeform pools to sport and play pools to romantic spas and therapeutic swim spas. Popular amenities for such pool and spa projects frequently include automatic safety covers, custom stone coping, colorful fiber-optic lighting, spectacular water features and disappearing negative edges.

A longtime member of the highly acclaimed Master Pools Builder Guild, Neuman Pools has been recognized as a top pool builder. The company goes beyond custom pool construction and supports its clients long after the sale by offering a comprehensive list of services from an experienced service department and a well-equipped retail store. ❖

The elevated brick lounging area, protected by a stately pergola, overlooks a rectangular pool that has a shallow end for wading and a deeper end that is ideal for fun and games. The entire deck, however, is roomy enough for all types of activities, including poolside luncheons.

Red, orange, gold: bold colors that ignite the custom tile around this spa with pizzazz — which is odd, because this is really quite a relaxing space. Steps, lined with the same tile, lead into a bubbling spa, while a ladder is on hand to keep things safe.
